

The Cries of London

Orlando Gibbons

Tenor I
Viola I

3

God give you good morrow, my ma-sters, past three o' clock and a fair morn-ing.

11

New cockles, new great cockles,

20

New great lam-preys, New haddock, new, Hot apple pies, hot.

29

Ripe small nuts,

38

ripe.

White lettuce, white young lettuce,

47

white.

Ha' ye a - ny rats or

55

mice to - kill?

63

71

79

87

Ripe damsons, fine ripe dam sons.

Buy a barrel of Sam -

95

phire.

103

111

Fine po - ta-toes, fine.

120

127

Quick pe-ri win-kles, quick, quick, quick.

Buy a new al - man ack.

Buy a-ny small coal?

134

141

hot oat cakes, hot.

150

And so we make an end, and so we make an end, and so we make an end.

159

Will you go with a pair of oars?

168

176

New oysters, new, new plaice, new.

New mack'rel, new.

188

196

Ha' ye a-ny kitchen stuff, maids?

Ha' ye a-ny kitchen stuff, maids?

203

I ha' ripe cow-cum-bers, I ha' ripe.

Salt, salt,

213

salt, to barge to, hard onions, hard.

Al' a black, al' a black, pips fine.

223

White radish, white young radish, white radish, white young radish, white.

233

soop, chimney soop, soop, chimney soop, soop, chimney

243

soop, misteress, with a soop, derry derry derry soop; From the bot-tom to the top, soop, chim-ney soop,

250

Then shall no soot fall in your porridge pot, with a soop derry derry derry soop.

256

And so good night.