

109  Ha' ye a-ny corns on your feet or toes?

117

125  Will you buy a-ny scur-vy grass? Good

133  gra-cious people, for the Lord's sake pi - ty the poor women; we lie cold and com-fort less night and day on

140  the bare boards in the dark dungeon in great mi - se - ry

148  And so we make an end, and so we

157  make an end. A good sau - sage, a good, and

168  it be roast - ed, go round a - bout the ca - pon, go round.

179  Will ye buy a - ny milk or fru - men - ty?

190

198  Ripe strawberries, ripe.

207  Ro - sa - so - lis fine. Will you buy my dish of eels?

215  Cher -ry ripe, apples fine, medlars fine.

224  Hot pudding pies, hot.
